RESOLUTIONS OF THE DEMOCRATIC AND CONSERVATIVE PARTY OF ALABAMA.

The State Convention, which adjourned Thursday night, adopted the following resolutions:

The Democratic and Conservative people of Alabama in Convention assembled do hereby resolve and declare:

1. That the Radical and disorganizing faction of the Republican party in this State, persistently, by false and fraudulent representations, have inflamed the passions and prejudices of the negroes, as a race, against the white people, and have thereby made it necessary for the white people to unite and act together in self-defense and for the preservation of white civilization.

2. That the rights of all classes of men under the Constitution and laws of the land shall be respected and preserved inviolate; that we deny that Congress can constitutionally enact laws to force two races into social union or equality.

3. That the so-called Civil Rights bill, recently passed by the Federal Senate, and now pending in the House, is a flagrant and dangerous invasion of the ancient conservative principles of personal liberty and free government, and is a palpable violation of the Federal Constitution, and presents an issue of vital moment to the American people, and calls upon them to decide at the ballot-box whether they will or will not be coerced to the absolute social as well as political equality of the negro race with the white race. We view with abhorrence the attempt on the part of the Federal Government to take control of schools, colleges, churches, hotels, railroads, steamboats, theatres, and graveyards, for the purpose of establishing negro equality and enforcing it under numerous penalties of fines, damages and imprisonment.

4. Civil remedies for the protection of civil rights are adequately provided by the common law to all races of men in this State, and added to these are the constitutional remedies for social wrongs which every race and class of men are properly left free, by the law, to adopt for themselves, so that the negro race has the same means of protecting itself against the invasions of its civil rights under the law, and against intrusion upon its social rights and privileges, by the white race, that the white race has. Under these laws, the race to which, in the Providence of God, we belong, for colored men once emancipated the people of the world which is our proud inheritance and has become to us a trust we can not resign without dishonor. We therefore denounce as violators of the letter and spirit of our Constitution, and as dishonoring to the genius of our race, all legislative enactments which attempt to convert into laws the rules and maxims of our social intercourse, to which we are civilized, or to punish with degrading penalties our refusal to admit an ignorant and barbarous race to equal participation with our families in our social institutions.

5. That we extend to all of our race in every clime the right hand of fellowship and a cordial invitation to come and settle among us, and unite their destinies with ours.

6. That proper laws should be enacted by the legislature to secure the employees of railroad corporations from unjust property of such corporations for the payment of their wages.

7. The exigencies of the time and the imperative condition of the people render it imperative that the State Government should return at once to that system of economy in public expenditures which conducted so much to the successful and satisfactory administration of the Government and the prosperity of the people before the war. Through Radical legislation and misgovernment our State has been impoverished and our people have been burdened with large debts and every other device conceivable to our enemies and oppressors resorted to, until our State Government no longer under the control of the people but in its practice and precedent reversed, abrogated and annulled, the Democratic maxim that Governments are based upon the consent of the governed. Betrayment in the reduction of these burdens, in the reduction of the number of officers, in official salaries and in the fees and commissions of officers, and in the economy of the State and to the world's credit, and we pledge ourselves to reduce every public expenditure and abolish and discontinue every office deemed to be an economical administration of the Government.

8. The Democratic and Conservative party of Alabama is pledged, so soon as it shall be placed in power by being intrusted with the State administration to cause to be made such speedy and thorough investigation as shall by its result make known to the people of the State and to the world our true condition, and that by its representatives here assembled that it resolves that every dollar justly owing by the State shall be faithfully paid when it is able to do so. At the same time it is firmly determined that the welfare of the people of the State and the interest of honest creditors shall not be put in jeopardy by the payment of unlawful or fraudulent claims of the State.

The Blowing Out.

If the disorganizers of this county have got a lively fall anywhere it has been in that portion of Blount county formerly lying within the Calhoun line and which yet votes for a Representative for Calhoun county. Every appliance was brought to bear to induce the patriotic men of that county to reject the nomination made by the Calhoun county convention and thus lend aid and comfort to the disorganizing movement set on foot in Calhoun by some of the tools of the Radical party. A meeting was held to take into consideration what steps should be taken by the three hundred voters of that strip of country, where, lo and behold! instead of rejecting the nomination for Representative, they ratified the nomination and affirmed their firm faith and confidence in the sound patriotism, good judgment and political honesty of their old neighbors of Calhoun county who participated in that convention.

Thus the disorganizers are deprived at one stroke of three hundred of those twelve hundred votes they have been boasting of voting. After this they had better seek into their holes and draw the holes after them. Before the election day comes they won't be able to influence the votes of a baker's dozen of intelligent negroes, much less the votes of patriotic white men.

Declines.

We have a letter from Mr. Cunningham, who has been for some time running as an independent candidate for the legislature, in which he announces himself as no longer a candidate and affirms his devotion to the White Man's party. In a speech at Alexandria he said that as soon as he learned the Radicals would support independent candidates, he concluded to come down and no longer lend aid and comfort to the enemy by his candidacy. The patriotic stand taken by Mr. Cunningham is highly commendable. There can be in the nature of things but two parties—the White Man's Party and the Negro Party. The White Man's Party has put out its candidates in Calhoun, and Mr. Cunningham rightly supposed that he could not oppose the ticket then put out, without such opposition inuring to the benefit of the Negro party.

June Bug Beat.

Last Saturday this club met and was addressed by Judge Alexander Woods, and T. J. Martin, Esq. At the conclusion of the speeches a resolution was passed that every man would cast his vote for the White Man's ticket and to inspire a compliance with the resolution another resolution was passed pledging each man to vote in the best. This action strikes us as wise. Let every man vote in his own beat, and afterwards come to the county site or other polling place if he may so wish. By this means the full voting strength of each beat may be determined, and due weight given each in future councils of the party, if it ever be necessary for the party to come together in council.

Speaking at Alexandria.

One day last week a large crowd assembled at Alexandria to hear speeches from L. W. Grant Esq., and Capt. Jas. Crook. Mr. Grant was unexpectedly detained by another portion of the county, and failed to put in an appearance. Capt. Crook addressed the crowd for more than an hour and at the conclusion of his speech organized a large Democratic club, with G. W. Humphries Esq. as President, and Mr. E. J. Dean Secretary. A meeting of the club is called for to day.

Speaking at Polkville.

Last Friday, according to appointment L. W. Grant addressed the people of Polkville Beat at the old Iron Works. At the conclusion of his speech, preparatory steps to the formation of a White Man's club was taken by calling Martin Crook to the chair and requesting L. W. Grant to act as Secretary. After the enrollment of names the following officers were elected:

President, C. D. Cunningham.
Vice Presidents, Shadrach Morris, E. V. Weaver and J. P. Hamilton.
Secretary, J. M. Moore.
Cassessors, W. R. Myatt, R. P. Haynie and M. H. Peckley.

After the formation of the club, the President, C. D. Cunningham, made a speech replete with patriotic sentiment in which he declared his determination to support the White Man's ticket State and county. We learned from a man well posted that this Beat would not cast one single vote for the Radical ticket but would vote solidly for the White Man's ticket. Not a single vote will be cast for an independent State in this beat.

Speaking at Sulphur Springs.

From Polkville to Sulphur Springs it is only six miles, yet the speakers at this point were greeted by an audience of over one hundred and fifty ladies and gentlemen. The ball was opened by L. W. Grant, who was followed in order by Capt. James Crook and Col. G. C. Ellis. After the speeches a very large White Man's club was formed with the following officers:

President, Miles H. Harrison.
Vice Presidents, J. Y. Henderson, R. D. Ross and J. B. Ingram.
Secretary, E. Henderson.

This Beat is perhaps more solidly united than any other beat in the county, if we may except Polkville beat adjoining. Every single vote in the beat we learned would be cast, and cast for the White Man's ticket both State and county. They have determined to go the polls as one man and not suffer themselves to be deterred from their determination by any appeals that disorganizers can make. Indeed a bitter feeling prevails in this part of the county against disorganizers.

than in any portion yet visited by the writer. They appreciate fully the issues at stake and will tolerate nothing that promises to come between them and a victory in November.

Speaking at Ladiga.

On Tuesday last, near two hundred citizens of Ladiga and vicinity assembled at that place, to hear the speeches that had been brought to come off on that day. At 11 o'clock a. m., Hon. R. F. Ligon commenced to speak and for more than an hour, in a most persuasive and convincing manner, addressed the crowd. Next followed Gen. W. H. Forney in his most happy style, and for an hour he captivated attentively to his remarks. L. W. Grant Esq., followed next in a speech of an hour, in which he discussed principally matters pertaining to the census in this county. The crowd were attentive and remained after he had concluded, until a large Democratic club was organized by J. H. Francis Esq. The following gentlemen were selected as officers:

President, M. T. Leadbetter;
Vice Presidents, State Nabors, L. C. O'Brien and J. C. Bolls.
Secretary, S. M. Bond, B. Bridges;
Cassessors, S. M. Bond, L. J. J. Wilson and C. C. Fanchender.

The people of this part of Beat 9 are thoroughly aroused and will poll its full strength for the White Man's ticket. The club meets again on to-night (Saturday).

Speaking at Nancys Creek Church.

On Wednesday a number of the citizens living in the vicinity of Nancys Creek Church, assembled at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of listening to the speeches of L. W. Grant Esq., and J. T. Martin Esq. Mr. Grant led off and spoke for more than an hour. Mr. Martin followed in a speech of about the same length. The crowd was attentive and gave the speakers the strictest attention. At the conclusion of the speeches, J. H. Francis Esq., after explaining the object of forming a club and the necessity of organization, called for those who were unwilling to join a Democratic club to rise to their feet. All remained seated except one man who left the house. The assembly proceeded to elect the following permanent officers for the club:

President, C. B. Sisson;
Vice Presidents, M. Andrews, Thos. Wilkerson and B. G. McClellan.
Secretary, R. L. Wilkerson;
Cassessors, W. T. Morgan, Ezekiel Perry and Robt. Davidoff.

A number of ladies were present at the meeting and by their presence not only gave inspiration to the speakers, but impressed the gentlemen present, that both sexes were equally interested in the issues of the contest. The club meets again on Tuesday night next.

Speaking at Talladega Town.

L. W. Grant and T. J. Martin, Esq., addressed the people of this precinct on yesterday. There was a good turnout of the people and great interest manifested. At the conclusion of the speeches a large club was organized with the following officers:

President, Wm. Whitehead;
Vice President, John Whitehead;
Elin Towner and Wm. Sellers.
Secretary, Wm. Andrews;
Cassessors, Robt. Dyer, C. H. F. Whitehead and T. J. Griffin.

The club adjourned to meet on next Wednesday night.

Randolph and Cleburne Counties.

EMERSONVILLE, Sept. 25, 1874.

Editorial Advertising—These true gentlemen and respectable workers, Gen. Forney and Capt. R. F. Ligon, were here to day. They have just closed a course of lectures in Randolph and Cleburne counties, and were well pleased with the outlook there. They will find that old Cleburne is all right on election day. The Radicals are sick high into death from their Civil Rights bill, and from the old-fashioned white and other standard bearers. Their general cry is that the Democrats are for anarchy, war, but it fails to have any effect. Our majority in this county will be increased and Randolph is almost certain to go Democratic, and Cleburne good man, J. Day Brown to the Legislature. Ex-Governor W. H. Smith, seems to take no interest in the election and since Bill Bates beat Robt. H. H. for the Congressional nomination, his enthusiasm has been wonderfully dampened. Among other prominent men who have left the county, we have reported the name of Dr. J. H. Davis.

Everywhere Forney and Ligon have found the people well informed. They speak as they have all been conservative and in opposition to violence and they truly proclaim to be the earnest stone of their party. Ours is emphatically a peace party, and unless all of our will prove to our people on the 23rd of November a rebuke to ALABAMA.

CHANGE OF TIME.

The ensuing session of the North Alabama Conference will commence November 11th instead of the 14th November, as published in the plan of instruction. This change has been made by urgent request though it does not extend as late as was desired, in consequence of the alteration in the times of other conferences, which it would necessitate. We are glad to notice this change as it will give ministers and delegates who have been compelled to be absent on the 23rd of November an opportunity of being at home on the day of the election.—Sulphur Springs.

Mr. P. R. Lile died in Columbus yesterday morning at 4 o'clock, from injuries received in the Waxahatchie accident. His remains were carried through this city yesterday evening for Marion. Mrs. Lile had sufficiently recovered to go to her home in Marion.

All of the other wounded persons were getting on very well, and are considered out of danger.—Sulphur Springs.

KNOXVILLE, September 20.—Knoxville papers of to-morrow announcing himself a candidate for Congress, from this the 21st District.

Touching Victims of the Fall River Fire.

A correspondent writing from Fall River gives the following incidents of the awful destruction by fire of the Granite mill he took. He says: "During the height of the excitement a little girl, scarcely five years, appeared at one of the upper windows gazing upon the horror stricken people below. All eyes were directed to her, in the expectation of seeing her follow the example of others who had jumped from the windows at the sight of the fire. Those who were looking down from the windows, grasped her more firmly to receive her, while others of voices shouted to her to jump. The light shone full upon her face, which was wreathed with a beautiful smile, as though she had caught a glimpse of the other world already; as the people gazed she slowly turned around and disappeared forever from mortal view. Whether she became insane by the smoke, or whether the poor child's flesh will never be kindled until the dead give up their secrets. Another incident that has been narrated as an actual fact, but which I have been unable to verify, is that a man, almost incredible, though not beyond the range of possibility. It is said that a little fellow, scarcely a dozen years old, jumped out of the upper windows to the street, and when the spectators reached him, he was found to be a boy, the boy, who was astonished to see him spring to his feet, apparently unharmed, and start on a run for his home. Busting into the house in breathless haste, he found his mother, who was all on fire, and then he suddenly dropped to the floor lifeless, the fearful six-foot jump having resulted in fatal internal injuries which the examination of the moment revealed his falling."

SEURO RIOTS.

This has become the staple topic of our news. Every day we have to report unprovoked acts of violence by armed bodies of these people, with direful threats of destruction to the whites. Their weak heads have been turned, and their savage passions excited by false political teachings, to such a pitch in some places that their white Radical leaders have been obliged to fly to the villages and white settlements for help to put a stop to their rage.

We need not say that common prudence commands the white people to supply themselves with arms and munitions to defend themselves. It can hardly be only a coincidence that these outbreaks occur at this particular time, when their white cutoff leaders have been rushing to Washington to drop their lies that the negroes were in imminent peril of extermination by the whites.

The outbreaks were precipitated to give color to their fabrications. They were ready enough to drive their poor bones to the loss of a few hundred of their lives, so that they could obtain evidence for their slanderous. But they have overdone the measure, and their armed brutes are betraying them by the excess of their zeal in blood-spilling. It is well not to forget these incidents in the course of the reconstruction history, through which we are passing. They are ominous in the account for the future settlement of these people have to make with the despotic gentlemen who have indoctrinated our negroes with their body politics. When their people proceed a little further, and the country homes of our citizens are assailed, with their precious inmates of wives and children, there will be an end of that moderation which so far meets these savages with embassies of peace and conciliation and with Sheriff's process. There will then be a "war of races" sure enough—a war of extermination. And for that a total termination of Radical reconstruction we shall also be indebted to carnal-bag and sealawag teachings.—Mobile Register.

MOBILE, September 30.—At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Mobile Cotton Exchange yesterday, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That on and after October 1st, this Exchange will accept the standard American types of cotton prepared and adopted by the Committee of Export of the National Exchange, and that quotations be made according to them. The cottons may have any other name, but they shall be of the same kind here.

HARTFORD, September 30.—Sharp's R. R. Company have accepted the challenge of Mr. H. H. H. of the first train, to test the merits of its engine and locomotive, and to see if it could beat the engine of the Hartford and New Haven Railroad on Saturday.

ATLANTA, Ga., September 30.—The Governor to-day ordered the sale of the Macon and Brunswick Railroad to take place on the first Tuesday in November next, at the depot in Macon, Ga., at public outcry to the highest bidder.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., September 30.—The committee for cotton and woolen factories, advise one third time from October to January. Manufacturers have made arrangements to comply.

CINCINNATI, September 30.—Joseph Glum, one of the proprietors of the Cincinnati Gazette is dead.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—A singular typhoon passed over Hong Kong.

The Steamer Locomotor and Albany and eight vessels were wrecked or foundered, and many are missing. A great number of houses were destroyed and it is reported that 1,000 persons were killed. The damage to property in the city and harbor, and the surrounding country is immense.

Washington, September 30.—The President is here. Four companies of Federal cavalry are ordered to West Alabama.

From the Huntsville Democrat.]
Independent Candidates, Read.

Queries for the consideration of Independent Democratic Candidates for County and District offices, and their friends:
To Independent Candidates Claiming to be Democrats:

1. Can you have a rational hope of being elected without Radical votes?

2. Don't you wish to get all the Radical votes you can muster?

3. Will not this desire prompt you and such Democrats and Conservatives as may support you, to strive to bring to the polls all Radicals who may be thought likely to vote for you; even though they may, also vote for the Radical State ticket?

4. Will not your candidacy therefore, give aid and comfort to the Radical party; and endanger the success of our State and county ticket?

5. Would it not be better for the good people of Alabama to do without your official services for a few years, however valuable, than you should imperil the success of our State, and perhaps, some county tickets by your personal aspirations, and perhaps cause us to be deprived of the benefit of the services of all the good and able men on the State ticket and possibly, lead to the continued ascendancy of the Radicals in our State Legislature?

We beg, therefore that you "lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil."

SIMON PURE.

Independent Candidates.

Saturday last, according to previous announcement, Col. J. L. Sheffield addressed about 250 or 300 of our citizens at the Depot, in this place. As was expected he tried to convince every body of freedom how grossly he had been swindled, at the Gadsden Convention—not only at the last—but at one or two other meetings of that body.

He went on to show his life-long service and adherence to the cause of democracy, together with his forbearance, of past wrongs &c. So far so good; but we would like to see the Col. still "in harness" and working for the cause of freedom, instead of kicking out of years, and running, independently, in the interest of the Radicals, thereby cancelling his right to credit, for what service he may have rendered the party in the past.

Besides, if we are not mistaken, history gives Benedict Arnold credit for his gallantry in several hard fought battles in the cause of freedom, notwithstanding he afterward sold his principles, and by every means in his power, tried to sell the liberties of the country he had so nobly defended, for British gold. And, within our own observation, did not James Longstreet, after making a gallant soldier, remain in the democratic ranks, doing good service, for three years or more, and then sell his principles for the Collectorship of New Orleans, "a good thing." Did not Alex White, and many others do good service in the democratic ranks, and afterward sell out? We are taught that "he that looks out faithful to the end" shall win the prize, and not he that runs wild at the start but when the heat and burden of the day sets in, lags and falls out of ranks.—Jackson Guard.

LEWIS E. PARSONS has been retained to prosecute the case under the Enforcement acts in Alabama.

What a miserable, vindictive creature is this man Parsons! Because the people of Alabama hold him in contempt, he seeks every opportunity to scourge them. It was he who, when Provisional Governor, added a condition to those required by President Johnson from applicants for pardon. He insisted upon asking them whether they had ever hunted Union men with dogs. This was the man who became the swift and vindictive prosecutor of the citizens of Cherokee when Gov. Smith and Judge Peters held their grand inquest at Patoka. Now he rushes to Washington and seeks the place of public persecutor under the Enforcement acts. In the days of the French Revolution he would have sought the place of public executioner. He would have held aloft the head of Madame Roland, not even concealing his grins behind a mask. And yet this man, in the Seymour campaign, declared at Montgomery, that he would rather die than join the Radical party!—Mobile Register.

The reaction is reaching the churches. The following remarkable facts are transmitted from Walker county to the Montgomery "Advertiser," letter, dated Arkadelphia:

Permit me to trespass upon your valuable columns for the purpose of informing the citizens at large what recently transpired in Beat No. 15 of this county.—A few days ago twenty-seven members of the Northern Union Methodist Church abandoned their faith and order, both religiously and politically, and joined the Missionary Baptist Church, and were baptized by Rev. L. Williams, of Jasper.—They were all Republicans, but when they abandoned their denomination they also abandoned their radicalism. Now they declare themselves Democrats, and will support the Democratic State ticket.

The Dying Mother.

BY DUDLEY WILLIAMS, M. D.

Dear sainted mother, when you're dead,

And God shall call you from your bed,

To wing your happy flight to heaven,

And sing the praise to angels given—

Oh! heavenly voice, how sweet a sound,

Will you—will you leave your little flower?

Sweet mother, kiss me one more time,

Before you leave for a happier clime,

And tell me if in heaven there be,

A home for dying mother and me.

Tell me if in that bright sphere,

Where you shall rest from earthly care,

To know that I've no mother near,

To tell me to be home here,

And when my eyes shall close in rest,

To watch me in my peaceful nest.

Sweet mother, from that lofty sphere,

Look down upon your little child here,

And wipe away the tears that rise,

Like beads of sorrow in my eyes.

And lead me from this sin-cursed sod,

Safe in the narrow path to God.

A Synopsis of the Election

Laws.

Prepared by the State Executive Commissioner, for directions as to the manner in which the elections shall be conducted, and the returns made.

BALLOT BOX.

1. It is the duty of the Sheriff to furnish for each precinct a ballot-box made of wood, tin, or sheet-iron, and securely fastened by lock.

If the Sheriff fail to furnish a box as required, the returning officer must prepare such box, as, in his judgment, will be suitable, in which to deposit the ballots.

INSPECTORS AND RETURNING OFFICER.

1. The inspectors and returning officer must meet at the place of holding the election in the precinct, to which they are appointed, at such place the court house, they must meet by 7 o'clock—if at other precincts, they must meet by 8 o'clock, and open the polling place.

2. If any inspectors, or returning officer fails to attend by the hour above stated, then those present must complete the number, by appointing some qualified elector to act as inspector.

3. If none of the inspectors attend, then the returning officer must appoint three qualified electors to act as inspectors.

4. If no inspectors, nor the returning officer attend, then any three qualified electors may open the polling place, and serve as inspectors.

5. If the returning officer does not attend by the hour above stated, then the acting inspectors must appoint some qualified elector, to serve as returning officer during the election.

CLERKS.

1. The acting inspectors must, before opening the polls, select two persons to act as clerks; these clerks must be chosen from the two political parties, if practicable.

OATHS OF INSPECTORS AND CLERKS.

1. The inspectors must, before opening the polls, take the following oath:

"You do solemnly swear, that you will perform the duties of inspector at this election according to law, to the best of your judgment. That you will not yourself, or knowingly allow any other person to compute the number of ballots with the number of votes cast, or, to have access to, or, on the control, or, custom of the polls.

This oath must be administered by the inspectors to each other, or, the returning officer, or, by a justice of the peace.

2. The clerks must, before the polls are opened, take the following oath:

"You do solemnly swear, that you will perform the duties of clerk at this election according to law, to the best of your judgment."

It is deemed safest to have this oath administered by a justice of the peace.

THE SUMTER COUNTY PRISONERS.

Arrival in the City and Incarceration in the County Jail.

DETAILS OF THEIR ARREST AND HARSH TREATMENT.

Insults and Outrages Upon Them by the Negroes.

[From the Mobile Register.]

Tuesday morning early we paid a visit to the jail for the purpose of having an interview with Messrs. Boufford, Bullock,

Hillman, and Childs, the Sumter county prisoners, who were arrested at Livingston and brought here for trial, upon the charge of killing W. P. Billings and Thomas I. Childs. The latter mentioned, Mr.

Childs, as is well known, is charged with the killing of W. P. Billings. After introducing ourselves and stating the object of our visit we were given the following facts:

On the 28th of September, Messrs. Renfro and Bullock were in attendance at the Democratic Convention of Sumter county then in session, the former as moderator and the latter as a delegate to the assembly. Some one entered the room of the court-house in which the Convention was being held, and called the sheriff of the county. A Lieutenant

Annes of the United States Army, and

United States Marshal, Willford, and Handolph came in just as the first of the delegates were about to leave the hall.

He had taken, and said something about having warrants for the arrest of the prisoners then in the Convention. The

WHITE, AND THE "BONNIE

BLUE FLAG."

BY DUDLEY WILLIAMS.

"The Bonnie Blue Flag no longer reflects

the light from our Southern sky.

Nor kisses again its silken folds

The soft breeze murmuring by.

"The hands that waved it along the

Of a hundred battle-fields.

And eke hearts that throbbed within

The breasts

"That stood as Freedom's shields.

Have sunk to rest in soldier graves;

In Honor's tomb they lie;

And the Bonnie Blue Flag no longer

waves

Beneath our Southern sky.

"Another flag in triumph floats

Above its prostrate folds.

But Memory round its fallen stars

A sleepless vigil holds.

"No eulogy requires:

The words of faithful history

The soul with praise inspires.

"The record of her sons' proud deeds

To heaven in joy shall rise,

Embruing as the diadem

That crowns but cloudless skies.

"We struggle hard for Freedom's right;

We tried the fruits of war,

But the North by numbers won the light.

And chained us to his car.

"But dearer far is she to me

In this her humble home,

Than when the mighty arms of wealth

Clothed her with pride and power,

And when my voice or arm I raise

Against my native land.

May heaven hurl forth a lightning shaft

To give me where I stand.

"Though others all may faithless prove,

Still I will faithful be,

Till from the peaceful realm above

My God shall call for me."

Proud sentiments! how sacred held

Let White the traitor say;

Alas, that such a mind and heart

Should thus be led astray!

OXFORD, Oct. 3.

Very Low.

The sound of the grinding is low in the entrance hall, and the voice of the carpet-lagger has become a hum. The most miserable failure that has ever attempted to be turned into a success. The result of the Ohio and Indiana elections left upon it like an untimely frustration, and it is the nature of the champion lags behind it, and it is the humus in a state of dilapidation bordering upon the ruins.

This is the last issue of the Republican that we shall send out before the election.

The next number will bear to our readers the sorrowful record of the complete humiliation of a gallant and deserving people, or herald a glorious victory of the honest masses of the State over the corrupt, the ignorant and the vicious, who have so long ruled to the detriment of the public good.

We honestly and candidly believe that it will be our pleasing task to pen the latter tidings to our long suffering people. If so how gladly will the pen glide over the pages; with what alacrity will the fingers of our typos move among the types to build up the story of our disenfranchisement, and how proudly will the pressman fling off the wet sheets bearing the glad tidings. Even the "devil" will strut as he flings around the papers to smiling and happy subscribers.

And every other vocation will catch new life and energy and vigor from the change in government, and at once all our people will go forward to bolder schemes, larger improvements, with a feeling of security in their ventures and with a hopefulness to which most of them have been strangers for years. The field will take on new life. The mountains will look dearer to us, the skies bluer, the fields more inviting, the air we breathe will feel more bracing and purged, and from the bottom of thankful hearts we can say, "This is our own, our native land."

In a few days and the political struggle for white supremacy in Alabama will have ended.

Have we all discharged our full measure of duty? Have we bent every energy and put forth every proper exertion to carry the State. If not let us go to work and make amends. Do we know of any white voter yet unknown? Let us go to his door and beg him to vote. Do we know of any old or helpless or infirm to the polls? Let us provide means for him to reach there. Is there any suffering sick or infirm? Let us go to the cause? Let us make it.

Sheets didn't meet with much encouragement at Cross Plains. He spoke to a crowd of about twenty, half of whom were Democrats, four negro men and about six negro boys.

Nobody cheered him. Nobody interrupted him. They just let him get through, pick up his carpet-bag and go home.

Poor old, used up, hunted Sheets. You will never taste the sweets of office now, ripped up, split up Sheets.

Irene Frank has learned an entirely new Radical electioneering wrinkle in behalf of his social equality party, and that is to assault God's Ministers who do not agree with him politically with impudent language and threatening suggestions.

We learn that he used a few days ago insulting and threatening language to Rev. B. B. Turner, because Mr. Turner had been in the habit of freely expressing himself concerning his (Frank's) vile party.

We advise Irene to keep his shirt on. It is of no earthly use for him to try to frighten anybody in the world. If the Radical party want to frighten anybody up here, it had better employ men more renowned for courage than Frank.

All the decent and respectable colored men of Calhoun have declared their intention to vote with their neighbors. They say they will not be led by the nose any longer by lowdown white men.

Vote early and work late.

More colored men will vote with us this election than ever before.

No man can vote the Radical ticket without endorsing the civil rights bill.

The Radicals have given the fight up in advance. Two of their State nominees have flown to the flowing bowl for consolation and have been on a high old drink, while the others are generally discouraged, sick and disheartened.

Lewis and Sheets went to fill an appointment for a "Grand Republican Rally" at Centre the other day, found neither white nor black there to listen to them and left the town without speaking.

Let the morning and afternoon votes.

Remember that the DAY NOV. THIRD.

If your neighbor is unable to go to the polls, get out your wagon and do it.

Refuse to start to the polls, send your neighbor and ask if he is going.

The Radical ticket for this county is headed with the picture of Congressman SPENCER, who voted for the Civil Rights bill and for mixed schools, mixed juries, mixed everything.

The Radical ticket of this county is headed with the name of David P. Lewis, who wanted to double our taxes.

The Radical ticket of this county contains the name of the confessed liar, Bingham.

The Radical ticket of this county contains the names of Peters and Safford, who, as Supreme Court Judges, decided that the inheritance of white and negroes was legal in face of a law of Alabama forbidding it.

That dirty fellow, social equality Sheets has been lying around town the last few days. We suppose he will stay over to attend the "Grand Republican Rally" to come off at Oxford one day the latter part of this week. If the Grand Republican Rally at Oxford does not pan out better than the Grand Republican Rally at Cross Plains and here, Sheets will leave Calhoun very unfavorably impressed with his party. They don't seem to rally much this year, Christopher.

Sheets, Burke and possibly another scoundrel or two spoke to a lot of empty benches here last Saturday. They were ashamed to have their meeting up in town among white folks and slunk off into the woods and hid it. About eighty people were present, including about twenty-five negroes. Sheets told lies as fast as shot rattling on a raw hide and Burke orated over this glorious Republicanism.

The effect was to send some few old darkies wool gathering, but no lasting good was accomplished by the speeches. This fact is the element of enthusiasm lacking in this campaign among the colored voters of this county. Many of them will vote square and fair with their white friends. They are tired of the broken promises of the Radical party.

The old freedom string and the put back into slavery and all that sort of thing, is about played out.

We invite attention to the cards of gentlemen repudiating the use of their names on the Radical ticket.

What can we think of a party that piratically seizes upon the names of gentlemen of opposite political opinion, and without their consent, parades their names upon their filthy ticket to attract votes to it? A party that will steal in this way will steal anything else.

But if it is an act of unparliamentary meanness to thus make free with the names of honest men, how humiliating must it be to the Radicals on the ticket to be thus publicly told that the association with them is repudiated with scorn and contempt and branding?

The dirty rascals can't even force themselves into association with Democrats. Let's bury them, and get rid of the stench.

That Banner!

We have seen the banner that the ladies are making for presentation by the Central Club the banner best of the county, as shown by the next election returns.

It is a very beautiful banner on a white ground, trimmed in blue. On one side is lettered, "Democracy, the hope of the country." On the reverse side is inscribed in bold letters: "Faster Beat of Calhoun County."

Several beats in the county are known as containing the honor of possession of this beautiful banner. It will be a great honor to win the banner in this contest for white supremacy.

Look Out Sharp!

We have received information by letter from Talladega that the Radicals of that county are making arrangements to float works into that county and Cherokee. We ask the white men at these points to explain to the negroes that this is a penitentiary offence, and that the white men of Talladega are on the watch and will certainly detect, arrest and indict them if they try such a thing. We also want the white men at these points to appoint a committee of white men to watch and follow any squads of negroes who may go from there in the direction of Talladega and be ready to identify and have them arrested if they try to vote. It would be well for the citizens of Oxford to be on the watch also, and if any negroes may be on the down train, to send a man along to see that they do not vote. They should also telegraph to Talladega that such squads of negroes are on the way to Talladega if any there be.

Read your ballots carefully.

Radical Nominations Repudiated.

Mr. John Price, whose name appears on the Radical Ticket for Governor, referred to by his last week, has requested us to say that he was never consulted about the matter, and never authorized the use of his name; and does not thank any one to take such liberties with it. That he has not one single Radical principle, or sentiment; and not one particle of sympathy with or for that party. That he is a Democrat, and desires neither nomination or support from any other party.

Messrs. J. P. & L. W. Grant.

Editors REPUBLICAN:

GENTS:—Seeing that your columns are open to my sort, I wish to say to the people of Calhoun county that my name has been used by a man or set of men without my consent or pleasure. I am no Radical, and I do not wish to be so called. I do not wish to be associated with the Radical party, and I do not wish to be associated with the Radical party, and I do not wish to be associated with the Radical party.

I have no objection to the use of my name as a Democrat, and I do not wish to be associated with the Radical party, and I do not wish to be associated with the Radical party, and I do not wish to be associated with the Radical party.

Yours, &c.,

W. A. SAMPBROUGH.

Ball Play, Ala., Oct. 26th, 1874.

Editors REPUBLICAN:

I am from the last issue of the Republican that the Radicals have placed my name on their ticket for one of the county Commissioners. I deem it almost unnecessary for me to say that I never authorized the use of my name in any such connection. I have been a life-long Democrat and have never, nor do I intend ever, to have any affiliation with the Radical party in the remotest degree. Some one has taken unparliamentary liberties with my name.

BENJ. NEIGHBOURS.

Calhoun Co., Ala., Oct. 25th, '74.

Editors REPUBLICAN:

Permit me through your columns to deny the authority the Radical party has assumed in using my name on their tickets. If they say they had such authority, that is a lie, like everything else they say in regard to politics.

I may be mistaken; it may not be my name they thought of. It might have been made Ben Nabors; but they certainly know I would not permit that.

I would say more, but have not got time. Suffice it to say I would not serve. If I were capable, in the best of the county, received at the hands of the flat nose and no better white Radicals.

Yours Respectfully,

J. R. B. Benjamin Neighbours.

As the dirty scoundrels have used it.

Calhoun Co., Ala., Oct. 28, 1874.

Editors REPUBLICAN:

I am in your list as a candidate for Commissioner on the Radical ticket. Sir, you seem to think that I am not more than one of these candidates referred to in the article. I have their names placed upon this ticket.

I do not suppose that any one of these has ever been consulted on the matter. I am certain that I never have been.

You know that I am not a Radical, and you know that I am not a Democrat, and you know that I am not a Republican, and you know that I am not a member of any party.

We cheerfully give the above a place, and desire to say a word or two, since Mr. Allen assumes that we "know" so much.

We did not "know" think any thing about the names on the ticket when we printed the article to which Mr. Allen alludes. We knew that one of the commissioners had not authorized the use of his name, and offered our columns to other Democrats to make similar explanation for themselves as we had no doubt they could do satisfactorily. Inasmuch as the Radicals had been so free to speak for them, we preferred not to follow Radical example.

Mr. Allen says that we "know" he is not a Radical and that we also "know" that he is not a Democrat, and that it is at this point Mr. Allen assumes that we "know" really more than we do.

We neither know that he was not a Radical or that he was a Democrat; but we supposed him to be a Democrat from the fact that he figured as a delegate in the late Democratic and Conservative county convention and assisted the party in putting up a ticket expressly to beat the Radical party, whose votes he "knew" every candidate in the field would like to have.

We say we thought that we knew Mr. Allen to be a Democrat, but he himself undeceives us on this point and it now appears that we did not "know" as much about Mr. Allen as he thought we knew.

He also says we "know" that for one we would like to have the Radicals vote to insure our election. Right at this point Mr. Allen possibly needs our own or desire the vote of any man who casts his vote for David P. Lewis, for Governor, White and Sheets and the ticket which they represent. I elected we expect to be elected alone by members of the White Man's Party. We would not go to Montgomery as the Representative of the Radical party of Calhoun county, and Mr. Allen is invited to "know" this fact.

Election tickets in abundance at this office. If by any means any beat should not have tickets on the morning of election, let a runner be sent for tickets at once.

A CARD

To the Voters of Calhoun County:

Desiring the success of the Democratic and Conservative party in the present contest, and unwilling to accept an office secured by Radical or negro votes, I hereby withdraw from the race for tax collector. I always have been and am still a Democrat, and would at all times sign any personal aspirations on the altar of my country.

JOSEPH BURDEN.

We commend the patriotic action of Mr. Joseph Burden in withdrawing from the race as an independent candidate for tax collector. His card is mainly patriotic and to the point. He seems to hold office as the gift of the Radical party even in part, and in assuming this position he has entitled himself to the unreserved thanks of the true white men of Calhoun county. There is a future reward.

Some living dog signing himself "J."

writes to the Calhoun State Journal as follows:

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 27, 1874.

Ed. Journal: Hon. C. C. Sheets and Gen. Burke addressed the people of Calhoun here Saturday. The Radicals are not running a full ticket, but several are running as independent candidates, and it is thought will be elected. This county has not been properly canvassed by the Radicals, although they are sure of the success of the ticket.

The persistent whole-sale lying and vilification persisted in by the Democratic leaders has not been enough to make the honest white men here say they want no more negroes and will not vote for the Democratic party any longer. The Radicals are not all out of this county yet, and the people here do not intend to be guarded in their expressions as to what they will vote for, for they get a notice to leave with the threat of a coffin, but they still vote for Lewis and the ticket, and say nothing about it.

Lewis may get a hundred or so of scattered old darkies, and half a dozen white men, all whom will be ashamed to say anything about it.

Hon. John H. Caldwell Endorsed by the District Executive Committee.

Office of the Executive Committee of the Democratic and Conservative Party of the 5th Congressional District of Alabama.

CENTER, ALA., October 9th, 1874.

To the Democratic and Conservative Voters of the Fifth Congressional District of Alabama:

It cannot be denied that the country is in the midst of a political commotion. We have reached a point where the eyes of the time, when the interests of our country and the sacred effort of our race, demand that all private and personal aspirations should be sacrificed for the good of the many. We do not call upon you to desert your homes, but we do call upon you to stand by the principles of the whole-souled men of the South. There is no strength like that which is found in unity.

Impressed with the worth of these principles, and (after careful and impartial consideration of the evidence) with a firm conviction of the validity of the Gadsden Convention, we appeal to you as good and true Democrats and Conservatives—as lovers of your race—as the promoters of your country's welfare and the promoters of your own personal and family interests, to sustain our regular nominee, the Hon. JOHN H. CALDWELL. In doing this, we shall leave to the future, not the conduct of the election, but the result of it. We were divided, much less inclined to affiliate with the enemy.

By order of the Committee,

S. K. McSPADDEN, Chairman.

W. F. ALLEN, of DeKalb.

W. M. HAMES, of Calhoun.

W. E. BROWN, of Jackson.

Joseph H. Francis Esq. nominated for Board of Education.

The following statement, from the Democratic Executive Committee of the 5th Congressional District, is important should be known throughout the District:

Ones of the Executive Com. of the 5th Congressional District, Ala., Oct. 21, 1874.

Messrs. W. M. HAMES and J. H. Francis, of the Board of Education of Calhoun County, have been elected to the position of the Board of Education of Calhoun County, Ala., Oct. 21, 1874.

Such is in brief the history of the reconstruction; such is the present condition of the Southern people; and such are the reasons why, in 1874, when a portion of them are driven to utter desperation by eight years of lawless, extortion and bloodshed, it is necessary to stretch out the military arm and send bayonets among them once more.

The facts are plain and unquestionable, and the Southern people cannot ponder them too wisely or too well.—New York Sun.

FOR OR AGAINST.—The Cincinnati Enquirer calls upon the voters of Ohio to make up their minds and ballots, and to vote for the party that is called upon to vote.

For or against the party that has robbed the South of her possessions and almost of her life, and which seeks safety in intimidation and falsehood there to maintain power in the North.

For or against the party of Credit Mobilier Companies, Salary Grabbers, Bosses, Landlords, and Villains.

For or against the party of Gollywog, Gollywog, Brothers-in-law, Rotten Third Terms, Sanitary Contracts, and Sanitary Presidents.

For or against the party of Cabinet officers, who were compelled to either to admit that a Southern State which fairly represents the Federal Union in that unhappy land, there is scarce a Federal official not dishonest, inefficient and corrupt, and a party in power, whose commanding General is General Canby.

We have truthfully and fairly named the issue. Gentlemen, choose, but vote.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, nothing the least of her credit-grabbers and salary-grabbers, says: "Georgia is a much of a place for carpet-baggers, and is one of the most peaceful States in the South."

In this brief extract the Enquirer not only states a very gratifying fact, but also gives the true reason for it. "Georgia is one of the most peaceful States of the South" because "it isn't much of a place for carpet-baggers."

Diedrich Knickerbocker, observing the numerous display of skeletons in the Cincinnati market, is said to have remarked to his unsophisticated son, "Whenever you see many of these 'ere skeletons, you never see any 'degs. So in the South whenever the carpet-baggers are allowed to have their own way, you don't never have no peace.—Sav. News.

—When you vote the Radical ticket, you endorse the Civil Rights Bill, the lawless seizure of property, the outrageous slanders that have so damaged the character and good name of Alabama. You also endorse all the plundering, robbery, and meanness of the lawless party that, ever had an existence in this country.

We issue the paper this week on Thursday in order to get it out to subscribers before the day of election.

HON. JAMES CROOK. EDWARDSVILLE, ALA., Oct. 17, '74.

Editors Advertiser.—Capt. James Crook, of Calhoun county, has just done a lot of speaking in this county; in which he has acquitted himself with honor, in defence of the Caucasian race. He has handled the issue with ability and zeal. He has pictured the "Civil Rights Bill" in its true colors. His arguments have been convincing and unanswerable. He has evinced his bearings that the White Man's Party is the party of peace, and that the only party seeking war and confusion is the Radical party. Both Democrats and Republicans endorse his doctrine. After he gets through with Sheds, White, Felder, & Co., you cannot find a man who will support these "Civil Rights." These men will run like a "tick in a tar bucket." The people of Calhoun will long remember this true patriot, and anxiously await the time when they can remunerate him for his gallant service in this contest for white supremacy. Calhoun will send up a glorious victory for the WHITE MAN.

LETTER FROM AN OLD WHIG.

The nascent passions hushed under the calm of youth, like painted snakes asleep beneath the leaves of roses that would rise and coil and sting and slaughter, and die at last of their own poison, is a Diocletian metaphor, fitly illustrating the fate of Radicalism in the South. Parties and men die of their own enormities, sin-cured and vice preyed upon. Outrage and plunder are the synonyms of Radicalism. Pauper men, frenzied by the memories of the dead past and the blackness of future hope, curse in their agony this Draconian Lythness, and commerce and the hungry stomachs of more than 8,000,000 of people seize this painted Death head and burn into it an anthem, as aquafortis burns into base metal. If Radicalism live it only lives to blaspheme God and the South!

Independents stand the solitary exception among all the white men of Lee county, who lift not hand and voice and heart against this Radical belchment. If they be not friends of the soiled courtesan, for base love they take her to their bosoms. Independents are Radicals in crystal, or a Trojan horse squirmed into the Radical party to devour under the pretense of building up. Whether in one or other character, they are equally detestable.

NO SCOTER A SCOTIS—a man's friends define what manner of man he is.—J. O. D. Smith, the most exemplary Radical in Lee county, is not likely to become god father to a Democrat. He never did an un-Radical act of which the public knows. That he and these Independents are as Damon and Pythias cup and saucer, shovel and tongs, soul and body is patent; and needle to pile; Woolsey to Henry the Eighth, Josephine to Napoleon, being not more true than J. O. D. Smith is to Radicalism, is an argument overwhelming against the Democracy of these Independents. And then a good Democrat cannot be run into balls and shot out of a Radical column into a camp of Democratic soldiers and if the thing be done his demonstration is made that the one is a good tactician and the other a party tool. "Oldillery" was made of better metal. And "Andrew-Jackson Independent Democrat" is a lie, "by the Eternal."

Radicals and Independents in league to crush the organized Democracy of Lee. Omnia defines their position. "In love, two wills move together, inspired by one soul, as the two wings of a bird move, ever apart yet ever in union." Democracy looks on this incoherent marriage, remembering that the dog that is only held by her chain will be faithful the instant that she tears her neck from the collar. Oh, said it is that there should be the huckster that buys a soul with a string of seed pearls and chaffs away honor for a knot of sapphire stones! (I speak to Independents who are Radicals, not to Independents who are Democrats.)

Like a wretched slave, driven by storms upon an unfriendly shore, the white men in Alabama stand before Washington dynasty heret and starving, with a last appeal for self-government and personal liberty, and they are answered by the clanking of chains and shouts of mockery made contemptuous by the gleam of Federal bayonets. This a last struggle of Alabama—a struggle of freedom with the slaves of passion and power and also with some of her own apostate sons; and it will not be to her disgrace that if she fall by the hand of children she travelled for, and nursed in her bosom, that she went down with the hymn of liberty upon her lips!

Dead, as dead dogs, is Radicalism in Alabama, but for the breath of life breathed into its nostrils by these Independents. Such an ally! Such an ally! Is there a God to punish infidelity? Can the people ever forgive or forget this wretched wood an gall?

Suicide, fratricide, matricide!—Cursed forever be the hand lifted to strike down its own household! Not even a nation, in its madness, hath such a license!—not a hyena will feed upon his kind. The wolf will eat a lamb, but spares the dog for kinship. Oh, blood of our blood, bone of our bone, flesh of our flesh, what satanic power hath produced this fratricide lust for life and for blood!

When you see your kindred and the best men of Alabama, led through the streets, hand-cuffed, by such men as Willford, whose only crime was his adherence to Democracy, comes there not a sense of shame for your perfidy? Who did these horrible things? And for what base purpose? What well-trained board-lunker, lurking unobserved in our midst, for party well, doth thus lie to whet his appetite in the fine red blood of an outraged citizenship? Is he Radical, Independent, or Devil? Humanity, for her vindication, prays that he may be devil.

It is not gone that the foe of civilization and race clamors for, but money, or if not money, it is hate. Peace, like a white dove with fiery wings, sits upon the uncounted ruins of this Argu-eyed vampire while he talons the flesh of our people and when suffering bath no longer patience and fortitude is put to rack, and the victim prays a Gethsemane prayer, the answer comes, "dogs crave not the mercy of men!"

The day is spent, the work is accomplished and deliverance has come. Ten short days, and Human is pendant upon Mordred's gallows Runymede, and again French MAISON CHATEAU, and the shout of liberty will ring in the ears of the South through the wasted fields of redeemed Alabama.

Wherever there is a man or woman, or child to honor his or her race, let not the November sun go down upon you with duty undone! The people—the white and black—are the wage of Democratic victory and at this foot of his Southern cross living let us worship or dying let us be steadfast! I have done. God help us!

Best Organs for Easy Payments. The new scheme of easy payments for Cabinet Organs offered by the well-known Cabinet & Musical Organ Co. has these advantages:

1. An organ may be obtained by a first payment of ten dollars or more.

2. If it does not prove satisfactory for the party taking it gets five of its money returned after six months, having paid nothing more than the rest of it.

3. If the exhibitor wishes to purchase and pay for it in the course of a year, the whole value is returned to him, he may return it at any time, or he may keep it all cash had been.

Dealers say this will, and the business of organ selling, as they cannot afford to compete with the Cabinet & Musical Organ Co. know so well the quality of their organs and that scarcely any will be returned to them that they believe they can afford such liberal terms. Circulars will be sent on application by writing to the Company for them to Boston, New York, or Chicago.

If the Druggist Offers any kind of herb-flavored alcoholist dyspepsia, biliousness, or any other ailment, tell him that you want Medicine, not a Jar of mud. Ask him for Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA BILE BEGETTER, the best regulating preparation known, and which you know is free from "Sugar's Bitter." Reject all the fiery "Tonics and Appetizers," and cling to that remedy. There is no medicine that compares with it.

"Waters' Concerto Parlor Organ" possesses a beautiful and peculiarly soft tone. The Concerto is, without doubt, the best ever placed in this country. It is produced by an extra set of reeds, perfectly voiced from which the effect is most charming, and its imitation of the human voice is superior to that of any other organ. It is free from "Sugar's Bitter." Reject all the fiery "Tonics and Appetizers," and cling to that remedy. There is no medicine that compares with it.

THE GREAT CAUSE OF HUMAN MISERY.

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment, and Radical Cure of Seminal Weakness, or Spermatocystitis, Induced by Self Abuse, Involuntary Emissions, Impotency, Nervous Debility, and Impairments to Marriage generally. Given in part on Wednesday, Friday, Mental and Physical Impairment, &c.—By ROBERT J. GULIVER, M.D., author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self Abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, longings, instruments, rings or cordons, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands. It is in an envelope, with any address of receipt of six cts., or two postage stamps. Address the Publishers.
